COMMENTS:

This is definitely a senior level course. The only thing I wish is that we had some kind of general review for the midterm/final. Just to know what to study because there are so many details to remember. I personally had trouble remembering everything, not to make sure I didn't leave anything out. The homework assignments seemed fair though.

COMMENTS:

This course material was difficult, but Dr. Braver presented it well and answered all questions. I don't think the presentations we had to do should also be material we are tested on, since presentations by students were not always done well.
