	Question: Distance Comments
Braver	dat boi Dr. Braver da goat..someone pay my mans his bag, he deserves it
Braver	I was nervous to take this course after the first meeting, because it is a bit of information that can be hard to grasp. However, the instruction is very knowledgeable and an exceptional professor within his field. His notes are very well organized and thought out, which I can appreciate it. I liked that you truly had to stay engaged to his content in order to be successful and it wasn't a free ride for those who did not truly earn it, if that makes sense; it did not make it hard either, as engaging as his content was. He was friendly and helpful with questions arose, so I appreciate that. Overall, I felt like this class was interesting and enjoyable, much to my fears initially.
Braver	I enjoy this professor and course as it is odd and unusual My only critique is more opportunity for online students to answer questions. Sometimes it feels like on campus students answer so quickly and for simple answers. But that's my only critique! Other than that, Professor Braver is a great asset and I would take this course again.
Braver	Meeting time, 6pm - 9pm, is very difficult for those who work full time. I often didn't have time to eat dinner until after 9PM, and I found it hard to pay attention at times because I was so tired. Prof was great, class was great overall.
Braver	Dr. Braver is a great teacher. I thoroughly enjoyed and benefited from the class. The hybrid class technology worked well.
Braver	hi? ?z ? mn

	Question: Comments instructor or course
Braver	Enjoyed this Professor very much!
Braver	Dr. Braver was always an excellent instructor. Thoroughly enjoyed the course. Parts of linguistics could be a somewhat dry but Dr. Braver always delivered the content well and clear.
Braver	Dr. Braver was flexible and understanding. He ensured that all homework and exams were fair and was consistently willing to take feedback. I believe it is wonderful how he is working to develop the linguistics program at TTU and I hope his hard work pays off. Overall, I truly enjoyed this course and would recommend it to anyone. It was a wonderful learning experience, thanks to Dr. Braver.
Braver	Once again, another great class taught by Dr. Braver. After taking Language in A Multicultural America with him, I set my hopes high with this class and I was not disappointed. He makes learning an intense study, which Linguistics is, easy. The only complaint I have is for the allotted time period for this class, especially during this semester when time change happens.
Braver	I enjoyed Dr. Braver's class. However, one con of the class was the evening / 3 hours cramped lecture. I wish the class was more spread out. I believe, I would have been able to take more away from this class if the class wasn't just cramped. Although the class was once a week... after 2 hours in the class, I felt disengaged, and rather tired.
Braver	Overall I enjoyed the course. I have never participated in a course of this manner before and I felt the professor did an excellent job making it to where I could understand the material. The class time was also nice. It allowed me to finish my degree while also working full time.
Braver	Pretty great professor to have. He seemed to really care about the class and seemed passionate about what he was teaching. Not every professor is like that. I wish that there had been another time to take the course so I did not have to be on campus so late, but a few of the other English courses are at this time so I was use to it. Good class overall. Wish there had been more assignments to even out my grade.
